

The Election.
The following is the vote of the election for Justice of the Peace, in Harrison Township, yesterday:

Henry Musgrave..... 465
John Davy..... 75
Willis Beauchamp..... 120
J. D. Murphy..... 273
Mr. Musgrave (Opposition) is elected by a handsome majority.

The whole number of votes cast was 941.

The New American Cyclopaedia.

This work is, in many respects, the most extensive literary undertaking of the age, and its usefulness bids fair to be fully compensated with its extent. It is not the labor of one man, nor the result of the investigation, nor the reflex of the sentiments, of a single individual; but rather a store house which many and great minds have assisted to fill. Each contributor has assigned him the subject best suited to his ability and acquirements, embracing within a small compass the products of a life's study. The competency of these contributors is well known and universally acknowledged—most of them are men who have no superiors in those branches of knowledge to which they have respectively devoted themselves.

These and other considerations lead us to the opinion that, as a book of reference, as a concentration of those facts and ideas of which a knowledge is considered absolutely essential, this Cyclopaedia is far superior to any work of alike nature which has preceded it. We are confident that human knowledge will have progressed far beyond its present state, and that the prevailing ideas of men and things will have materially changed, before it will be found necessary to prepare a successor for the work now in process of publication.

Mr. William Cleveland, the agent for the States of Indiana and Michigan, is now in town, and will have the pleasure of calling on our citizens for the purpose of obtaining their names as subscribers to the above invaluable national work; and we urge all who would be possessed of a most complete library, to embrace the opportunity.

An expense of only 26 cents per week will purchase it as fast as issued.

The Ft. Wayne Republican, in speaking of Mr. Booth's oration in that city on the 4th, says:

To say that this address was excellent is not enough, nor do we feel that we can do justice in any brief analysis we might attempt to give of it. We can only say that it was a able expression of the principles of Old Fellowship, "the brotherhood of man," and that it was forcible and eloquently delivered, holding the serious attention of the audience for an hour."

A RELIC.—The Fort Wayne Times of Tues. day, says the remains of an old blacksmith forge, consisting of several wagon loads of stone, were found in that city, the day before, about two feet below the surface of the ground, by some workmen who were digging a cellar. It was on the spot where Gen. Wayne built his fort in 1770.

Good for Them.—Some women in Kansas are signing petitions to the new constitutional Convention, asking for equal rights with the men, on the popular sovereignty principle.

We are rejoiced to find that the renowned Chemist of N. England, Dr. Aver, has at length turned his attention to the disorder which hangs like a blighton on our community. Our section is as healthy as any other, with one single exception, and that is the Fever and Ague, which haunts us on every side. His remedy comes as we have been told, it must come, from the hands of God. We thank God for giving us one of the liveliest spirits in the West.—Seaside, Patfield, Ioss.

EXCURSION OF THE SONS OF MALTA.—The Sons of Malta of Bailey Lodge, of Cincinnati, go on an excursion to the Falls of Minnehaha and St. Anthony, on Wednesday, the 29th inst.—There is to be a gathering of the members of the Order throughout the United States, to celebrate the "Feast of the Nine Cardinals," at the Falls of St. Anthony, on Saturday the 23d.

ARTHUR'S HOME MAGAZINE for August is upon our table. No Magazine is more deservedly popular in the home circle than Arthur's, and none more worthy to be read. The engravings are magnificent; "Crossing the Brook," is most admirable, and will attract the attention of the juveniles. Every lady should have it on her work table."

Dr. Nelson Westfall, Esq., returned home from the Hot Springs of Arkansas, on Saturday last, much improved in health.

BLODWIN'S SECOND FEAT.—Mons. Blondin performed on his Niagara tight-rope on the 4th. He ran backwards down the rope 200 feet without his balance pole, balanced on one foot, extending the other and also his body over the boiling flood, returned to the bank, turned round, and with pole in hand started rapidly across the river. When half way, he sat down quickly, lay down on his back, sat up, whirled himself round, and crossed over. He returned in a single reaching down to his knees, totally depriving him of sight and the use of his arms and hands! Blondin doesn't blunder. His nextfeat is to be with fireworks.

Hope and Fortune. It is amazing in what unfeeling indifference the sanguine find grounds for hope. As the power of the microscope converts the green moulds of some decaying object into verdant forests and bowers of bliss, the eye of youth discerns in the countenance of a dead, and its bosom dead, friend, a token of a broken strain of anguish and untimely music. To such degrees of fatalistic hope, however, is not that which is based upon some surer and firmer foundation. Such, for instance, as investing the small sum of $10, $5, or $20, in Wood Eddy & Co.'s great legalized lottery.—The lottery, however, gives a chance to Wood Eddy & Co., at Augusta, Georgia, and Wilmington, Delaware, the wood of danger, for those at the shrine of her favors, will insure a chance of realizing his hopes in the gaining of a fortune in a prize of $50,000.

REFUSED BY DEMINIA TO A MAN SKIN-TOS—CURED BY BORRHEIA'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—Mr. A. Matchett, a trader probably as well known as any man in Western Pennsylvania, states as follows: "I met with a farmer in Armstrong county who had a bottle of Deminia as a medicine. I persuaded him to give me a bottle of Borrheia's Holland Bitters, believing it would cure him. Meeting him some months after, what was my astonishment at finding him a pale, hasty man; he told me he now weighed 200 pounds, and that this wonderful change had been produced by Borrheia's Holland Bitters to which he attributed solely his restoration." (July 13, 1831.)

YANKEE IN DIAZ.—Some young ladies, feeling themselves aggrieved by the severity with which their friends admonished them on their gay plumes, crinolines, scarlet petticoats, and bouffants, went to their pastor to learn his opinion. "Do you think," said they, "there can be any impropriety in our wearing these things?" "By no means" was the prompt reply. "When the heart is full of ridiculous notions, it is proper to proper to have cut out."

TO A RICH LADY.

BY THE SPORNED M. D.
But yester eve for thee I should have died,
Ay'died by drowning in the gold wet river,
But when alone I reached the muddy side,
To jump therein I did not have the nerve.

And I'll die never of a broken heart,

While thou couldst stamp it down and curse shall (keep)

I would not have thee, or thy wealth in part,
But win the flage, be thou a lamb or sheep.

They fay'd stell'd up my soul, so winds the core;

What's that o'er art, there's Edna in a fern,

Now, as wavering step I tread the town,
A bar-room's lights across my pathway flash—

And if for love I can not go to drown,

At least for thee I'll go to smart.

And should I fall Death, with ghosts clutch me—
Me by the throat, and fill my soul with fear—

Then, if a log of steel stand tramp,

And I'll be conveyed on a Lager Bier.

THE IMPRESSION grows stronger, that American volunteers will be employed to aid the Constitutional Government to conquer the rebellion in Mexico. In that case, it is said that Juarez will have no difficulty in raising a loan in the United States on the hypothecation of the government lands, estates and securities.

SENATOR DOUGLASS' letter is not very favorably received by the Democracy of Maine. The Bangor Daily Union, a leading and influential newspaper of the party in that State, copies it and says: "Horace Greeley himself, with all his craft and ingenuity, could not have concocted a letter calculated to create more mischief in the Democratic ranks."

These and other considerations lead us to the opinion that, as a book of reference, as a concentration of those facts and ideas of which a knowledge is considered absolutely essential, this Cyclopaedia is far superior to any work of alike nature which has preceded it. We are confident that human knowledge will have progressed far beyond its present state, and that the prevailing ideas of men and things will have materially changed, before it will be found necessary to prepare a successor for the work now in process of publication.

Mr. William Cleveland, the agent for the States of Indiana and Michigan, is now in town, and will have the pleasure of calling on our citizens for the purpose of obtaining their names as subscribers to the above invaluable national work; and we urge all who would be possessed of a most complete library, to embrace the opportunity.

An expense of only 26 cents per week will purchase it as fast as issued.

The Ft. Wayne Republican, in speaking of Mr. Booth's oration in that city on the 4th, says:

To say that this address was excellent is not enough, nor do we feel that we can do justice in any brief analysis we might attempt to give of it. We can only say that it was a able expression of the principles of Old Fellowship, "the brotherhood of man," and that it was forcible and eloquently delivered, holding the serious attention of the audience for an hour."

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger.

ANOTHER CURIOSITY.—We understand that Mr. John C. Terfloth formerly a liquor merchant of this city, but more recently of Louisville, who was paying a visit to Germany, accompanied by his bride, (they being on a weddin' tour,) was seized with a mysterious malady. His young wife is thus left alone in a strange land, while Mr. Terfloth, who is engaged in business here which must greatly suffer in his absence, is impressed into the service of a country whose allegiance he long since renounced.—New Albany Ledger